SIMPLY BETTER LIVING

SIMPLY BETTER LIVING

Mennonite Home Communities has always focused on wholesome, meaningful community living and compassionate care for more than 100 years. That's a century-long commitment, a legacy in staying at the forefront of providing distinctive living environments, and assuring we deliver relevant, personal attention for every one of our community residents—for people just like you!

A Continuing Care Retirement Community

Woodcrest Villa is the residential living campus of Mennonite Home Communities, which has been serving Lancaster County and beyond since 1903. As a continuing care retirement community, Woodcrest Villa offers a wide selection of residences for a variety of price ranges and lifestyle preferences, so you can spend time enjoying the things you like the most while we take care of home maintenance, meals and landscaping. You'll also have the chance to connect with your neighbors and make new friends who share your interests and hobbies. You also have the reassurance that, should additional care ever be needed, Woodcrest Villa residents have priority access to high quality personal care, memory support, skilled nursing and rehabilitative care at Mennonite Home.

Choice

Apartment and Villa Living

At Woodcrest Villa, your residence choice include apartments and villas. With several dozen floor plan options, you can find a cozy efficiency apartment or a spacious two-bedroom apartment with a large balcony—to everything in between. Rentals are available on some of the one-bedroom and efficiency apartments. Roomy hallways and enclosed walkways make apartment living easy and convenient to get from one place to another—whatever the weather.

Or, if you prefer, check out our six spectacular villa floor plans. Most villas feature a spacious kitchen, two bedrooms (with a walk-in closet in the master suite), roomy bathrooms, living rooms with gas fireplaces and laundry room. Villas have either a one- or two-car garage and some also feature extra room for storage or a work space. Some Villa floor plans also feature a four season room that opens to a delightful patio.

COMMUNITY LIFE

Whatever your interests, Woodcrest Villa has something to offer you. The only limit is how involved you want to be. With dozens of clubs and committees to engage in, you can meet and mingle with your neighbors while doing what you like the most. You will also want to be sure to reserve your seats for one of our Community Life Activities many trips to places both near and far—from Longwood Gardens to New England and Ireland! Our Life Enrichment Program features speakers on a variety of entertaining and interesting topics. Many residents enjoy using the fitness equipment and even participating in aqua Zumba® or aqua aerobics in the Woodcrest Villa swimming pool. Life is what you make it!

Location

Close to Everywhere

LANCASTER COUNTY

When you begin to explore Mennonite Home Communities and realize our exceptional accessibility to local destinations of interest, you will quickly see how whatever you might want is just down the street! Take in shows of biblical proportions and talent at the Sight & Sound or American Music Theatres; experience good old-fashioned baseball by the Lancaster Barnstormers minor league baseball team; or slip downtown for a quiet dinner and an evening at the Lancaster Symphony in the oldest continuously operating theatre in the U.S., the Fulton Opera House.

Renowned outlet shopping for all tastes, cuisine served up from a vast array of restaurants or a healthy mix of arts, sports and entertainment—everything you need to keep you and your calendar as full as you want to be.

In addition, Mennonite Home Communities is virtually next door to high-quality healthcare providers and services.
